“Up and Coming PA of the Year” at Executive PA Awards

Crone Corkill, Advantage Resourcing’s Executive Assistant & Business Support division, has sponsored the category for the “Up and Coming PA of the Year” at this years Executive PA Magazine Awards.

The Executive PA Magazine Awards are the oldest and most established awards for Personal & Executive Assistants and they also happen to be the only PA & EA awards that are run globally.

The judging process is transparent and rigorous and the final interviews for the finalists of two categories are conducted with a panel of respected peers, educationalists & industry professionals.

Everyone associated with the Executive PA Magazine Awards wins, from profiled employers who demonstrate positive employee engagement & development, the managers who work as role models for positive leadership, mentors with the ability to identify and guide great talent, through to the finalists and winners themselves.

Finally the Awards provide a vital platform to profile the profession and its importance, so all those working within it are properly valued and offered every opportunity to professionally and personally develop for a more fulfilling career.

The 2016 Executive PA Magazine Awards will be taking place on Wednesday 19th October 2016 @ Indigo at the O2, with a sponsors and winners evening taking place at the Swan at the Globe on Tuesday 15th November.

These evenings are great occasions to celebrate another successful year in the world of PAs, Executive Assistants and Business Support.

HOW TO ENTER

You may wish to enter yourself or you may be mentoring an up and coming star and nominate them. Alternatively, you may wish to nominate a boss or employer as great role models for other bosses and organisations. You can nominate in one, some or all categories.
